

Edmonton International Choral Festival Gala Choir

The Edmonton International Choral Festival will feature professional international and Canadian choirs, renowned guest conductors, and Edmonton's own Pro Coro Canada. The Festival will also engage local choirs and individual singers throughout the community. Venezuelan conductor, María Guinand, will lead a mass choir in the concluding Gala concert of the Festival.

María Guinand, director

María Guinand is a choral conductor, university professor and leader of many choral projects both nationally and internationally. She is a specialist in Latin-American Choral Music of the 20th and 21st centuries.

The Gala Choir is open to all choral community members who want the experience of learning from and singing with one of the world's finest choral conductors. Extensive choral experience is not required, but music literacy is an asset.
